

Best agent, medium

An agent with 3-9 staff

Winner: Casacalida Properties

“If the approach to selecting featured properties looks strong, then the comprehensive range of services offered to buyers and light-touch inspection trips seal the deal for Casacalida Properties”

Mark Johnson collects his award from A Place in the Sun's CEO, Darren Styles

Casacalida Properties, as agents and developers, have three offices in Spain as well as a UK base, and boast an impressive track record both in construction experience and the Spanish market. This is a family-run business that backs up a good record with a diligent approach to pre- and post-sales. The judges were especially taken with an “apparently foolproof” sales selection criteria, good local knowledge, “relaxed” inspection trips and a “confident, transparent approach” to doing business.

A Place in the Sun

A Place in the Sun is the UK's number one overseas property media brand. From a prime-time Channel 4 television show and a best-selling magazine that outperforms its nearest rival by a margin of more than two-to-one, to the UK's biggest and best-attended exhibitions and a just-launched website at www.aplaceinthesun.com, A Place in the Sun has done more to popularise and promote the notion of international ownership than any other outlet. Our publications and events have won countless industry awards, for everything from innovation and customer service to marketing and the organising team, and are the only UK products to offer independent, Audit Bureau of Circulation-verified figures for magazine sales and exhibition attendance.
